It's nice to meet you once again
Who is this beneath your skin?
You look so troubled
I'll help solve the puzzle if you let me in

It's funny how it all works out
Even when we had our doubts
It's a constant struggle
I guess that's what love is all about

So go on go change
You know that change is good
And it's a risk worth chancing
So turn the page
And leave the music on
When everyone is gone
There's you and me left dancing
On an empty stage

It's nice to meet you once again
I let you out now let me in
I won't surrender
I know December will keep us close
So go on go change
You know that change is good
And it's a risk worth chancing
So turn the page
And leave the music on
When everyone is gone
There's you and me left dancing
On an empty stage

Confusion my close friend
Your timing is perfect once again
Let's try to save it
Don't waste it

So go on go change
You know that change is good
And it's a risk worth chancing
So turn the page
And leave the music on

When everyone is gone
There's you and me left dancing
On an empty stage

So it's nice to meet you once again
