"Falling"

In my ears the wind is screaming
Balling out at eight miles high
You are falling
Through the sky
Through the air
Asking why
Falling to the earth
People point as the seconds tick away

In my head the blood is pounding
Forests drift before my eyes
You are falling
Through the sky
Through the air
Asking why
falling to the earth
People point as the seconds slip away
Ladybird, ladybird fly away home
Your house is on fire and your children are gone
If only you had listened to your heart

In my mind my life is flashing
Pull the cord before you die
You are falling
Through the sky
Through the air
Asking why
falling to the earth
People point as the seconds slip away

Ladybird, ladybird fly away home
Your house is on fire and your children are gone
If only you had listened
To your heart
