English lyrics:

Rolling Girl always looked at unreachable dreams
Making a fuss if you got inside her head and disturbed, disturbed.

"No problem." Was murmured, but weren't those words lost?

Fail again, fail again.

After ending your search for mistakes, it spins again!

Once more, once more.

"I'll also roll today,"

That girl says, that girl says,

Playing her words with meaning

"Are you better now?"

"It's still a ways off, I still don't see the point.

I'm gonna stop my breathing, now."

Rolling Girl is at the end of the ruins, beyond unreachable colors

Overlapping voices with voices and blending, blending.

"No problem." Was murmured, but those words were lost.

How are you going to turn out good?

Even the hill tempting me is making mistakes now.

Once more, once more.

Somehow I'm rolling.

That girl said, That girl said

Repeating silent words with meaning

"Are you better now?"

"Just a bit more, and you'll see something soon.

I'm gonna stop my breathing, now."

Once more, once more.

"I'll also roll today,"

That girl says, that girl says,

Playing her words with a smile

"Are you better now? It's okay now.

Let's go, you must be tired as well, right?"

I wanna stop my breathing, now.
