[Verse 1]

I swallow six foot men my jaw size ludicrous when I was new to this I ate my siblings in the uterus kill a killer whale, iller scales than iguanas shred cows in seconds like thousands of pirahnas hammer head thermal radar sensors increase crossing under-water volcanic peaks where lava leaks the bola zambezi shark rip you apart survived the dinosaurs extinction with ridiculous heart livers eighteen gallons of oil to help me float more than eighteen gallons of blood fell out your throat after I co-ordinate pectoral and dorsal to your co-ordinates then dissect your body to morsels on Normandy's beach it's storming ferocious feeding frenzys forming, as your blood is emptied its pouring needle nosed battering ram, shattering slams to your cattamaran with my teeth stabbing your glands

[Chorus - repeat 2X]

Raahhh! I am an animal! sea land or air, eat a man or two chew through whole crews like a cannibal cut and sandwich you, I am an animal!

[Verse 2]

I'm the malicious mammal, killing sadistic vandals who are destroying earths crystalline twisted channels my tiger fleet need thirteen pounds of meat each a day to stay alive and eat the chief predator, so if you got beef I'm deading ya chew through caribou large cattle etcetera and man stands at the head of the list he destroys prey and habitat that let us exist the caspian bali and java were not survivors I roll with the indo-chinese and south china sumatran, bengal and siberian when caught men fall and scream I'm not hearing 'em every tiger's unique stripes distinguishes us from one another like human finger prints my tiger claw wounds you can't hide with gauze died of course with your skull inside my jaws!

[Chorus]

[Verse 3]

My razor beak and crest are sharp and regal dark and evil, the ravenous harpy eagle dart between trees, snatch two toed sloths seventeen pounds to the ground then chew its nose off wing span is ten feet I beat howler monkeys out the trees while you pecking seed where the hens eat the bald eagle, perched on a tall steeple all feeble prey get slayed including ya'll people when I'm landing with my team start abandoning your dream snatch that ass like a salmon in a stream slashing ya, in the air tear half of ya cause the other half dropped in Alaska I'm hacking the flesh off the back of ya then take a bath in ya, fresh blood like Dracula I ravage ya, carcass like a scavenger claws stabbing ya, aerial attack massacre!

[Chorus]
