At that first glance when i saw you
In that little plaid skirt and your steel toe boots
I noticed you sittin at the end of the bar
You were smokin cigarettes and drinkin PBR
With you big red lips, Cold blue eyes
A-line cut and tattooed thighs,
You and me baby gonna make some noise!
Just gimmie the word and i'll be your boy!

Well, i haven't seen my baby in many many moons!
She's always out with the girls gettin liquored up on booze!
Well, if a diamond is forever...Than why are we apart?
She said "you'll always be my baby" and then she broke my heart!

A girl like you just aint no good!
A girl like you just aint no good!
A girl like you is misunderstood!
Misunderstood!
Well, I'll take you for a spin!
I know that I'll never win!

Just aint no good
Just aint no good
Just aint no good

A girl like you just aint no good!
Always on the run!
A girl like you is misunderstood!
Only in it for the fun!
Well, I'll take you for a spin!
And i'm jumpin thru your hoops!
I know that I'll never win!
I'm the one you fuckin duped!
