Turntable metabolism, watercoloring words, into visions
Respect original graff writers modern day mathematical pattern detracts biters
Hardcore hip-hop in it's purest form, only real b-boys can weather the storm
And I'm a b-boy chillin in my b-boy stance
I'm lookin for a b-girl that wants to breakdance with me

My life cycle's circular, so I got no sides
At one with the earth, so I claim worldwide
I reflect cultural duality
My locality is my spirituality
Key-Kool sees through the illusions, natural selections, evolution
Rhyme evolution, get the riot gear
You say where, Visionaries right here

Ha, I love hip-hop
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop
You know, Visionaries always rock the spot
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop

No more coal left, produce train of thought
Before you realize, lay down in your cof [fin]
Interview who, style is Dannu
Pen tank emp [ty], when we do what we do
Who be da headless horseman, swordsman
Smashin pumpkins, dunkin your guts
Mock Writer's Block, sleep hollow in the tux Lyrics juxtapose, joust if I must

Lifted, encrypted
Zen ripped it so they sit enlisted
You missed it, make a fist with your fingers realistically sticky like mystic
Leavin it before statistics, holistic medicine, jettison
For synthetic remedies, remember these lyrical lacerations
Call the paramedics, don't edit my context, no contest
Too complex like Braille to a seeing eye pet

Ha, I love hip-hop
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop
You know, Visionaries always rock the spot
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop

Give a ten-string instrument strung Refreshing as a ripe plum who's hype one
Put in a page, get no answer
From this freelancer contorted like a breakdancer
All over this place, wait, a mic's in his face
Finishing top five in the human race
No narcotic, just our product rushed to market
Dollars in the bulls-eye, charging red carpet
Ole, here to stay until tribulation
Lord rescue me from eternal damnation
You chasing freedom, then clinch your fist
Put 'em cloud bound so opposition can't miss

Ha, I love hip-hop
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop
You know, Visionaries always rock the spot
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop

Ha, I love hip-hop
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop
You know, Visionaries always rock the spot
I don't give a ... cause I love hip-hop
