(Cause it's better to have money and not to need it
Than to need it and not to have it
And there's a good place in this world for money, yes sirie
And I know where it is, it's right here in my pocket
- Hey, gimme some
- You're talkin' just like a pimp
...
- Answer him, answer him
- I don't get mad at people like that You know why? Cause he's a revolutionary)

[VERSE 1: Key-Kool (patterned after Ice Cube's
"Gangsta Gangsta" verse)]
Here's a little somethin' 'bout a MC like me
Dropped "Kozmonautz" and "Galleries" independently
Key-Kool, I likes to say
That I'm a fresh lyricist from around the way
Since I was a youth, a straight b-boy
Now I'm takin' out all the sucker decoys
Flippin' a rhyme or two, that's what the hell I do
You don't like how I'm livin', well (scratch) you
This is hip-hop and I'm in it
My man Rhett will cut you up in a minute
With a cut, stab, crab, flare so (funky)
And then he claims his crew the Beat Junkies
Everywhere we go they say (damn)
Visionaries is (scratch) up the program
And then you realize that we all care
For those who just don't know we're throwin' V's in the air
And keep makin' straight up (sh...)
Does it look like I have to make a hit?
To a major label that wanna sign me
Rap ain't nothin' but a way to make money
But I'm the type of MC that's built to last
If you wanna pimp me I put my foot in your ass
See, I don't give a (scratch) how many records you're sellin'
Yo, what the (scratch) are they yellin?

Make money money, make money money money

Make money money, make money money money

(Rhettmatic cuts up)

[VERSE 2: Key-Kool]

Just like King Midas, as I was told

In this rappin' Olympics fools are rushin' for gold

Livin' without code, better change your mode

Tryin' to be down with dough on the yellow brick road

Wizard of Oz complex is goin' for the riches

No heart, no brain, cowardly lost to the bitches

Too weak to lead, so they're followin'

Weak-kneed MC's now only suck to swallowin'

Fallin' in the trap of big money crap

The only real big baller who started rappin' is Shaq

They act large but it's evident

You only make minimal percent unless you're the president

I'm want self-empowerment, so others'll pay me rent

And I can control my artistic intentions

Make investments, count all my blessings

See the Age of Aquarius, in fifth dimensions

Comprehension like Babu

Dynamic like the Duo, it's the two you know

Key-Kool and Rhettmatic always come well equipped

And like a club in Manila we'll make your whole party flip

(Rhettmatic cuts up)
