Cut through the stone
Into the skin
You build it up
And I'm wearing thin
I dug the hole
To bury the axe
But you kept it sharp
'Cause you're not done yet

But I still wait for those
High highs
Gonna wait for those
High highs
Gonna wait for those

Just take a drop
To see if it's okay
Might last an hour
Or take all day
I squeezed the blood
Straight from the vein
That leads to my heart
So I'll feel the pain

But I still wait for those
High highs
Gonna wait for those
High highs
Gonna wait for those
