"High Highs"

Cut through the stone
into the skin
You build it up and I'm wearing it thin

I dug the hole
to bury the ax
but you kept it sharp
'cause you're not done yet

I still wait for those high highs gonna wait for those high highs
gonna wait for those

Just take a drop
you'll see it's okay
It might last an hour
or take all day

I squeeze the blood
straight from the vein that leads to my heart
so I don't feel the pain
