Maybe I'm thrown
That there is only so much
Time to breathe and let it all go
Release the full weight of it all

So
What it takes
Not to run not to hide at all
To spring a cage or build your wall
Just to know once it means
Not to fear the fall and stay along

'Cause if we ever fly too high
I know we'll hang on strong
We're goin' all the way
To the centre of the sun

Everyone's through
With running now to outsmart you
But you're sometimes the fool
And there are tears that seem rough cut

I know you're flying high
'Cause you never fall and never will
You build your wall

Didn't think that I'd Ever really care at all
But not for long

CHORUS

If we ever fly too high
I know that right or wrong
We're goin' all the way
On the road we've known

I'll keep us in the air tonight
With the ground below beneath my sights
Keep reeling if you dare tonight
And you wont be left alone

Despite the way some may feel
I see you take it all unto your shoulders
Never letting yourself heal

CHORUS

If we ever fly too high
I know that right or wrong
We're goin' all the way
To the centre of the sun

Despite the way some may feel
I see you take it all unto your shoulders
Never letting yourself heal
