You appear in my dreams
But you're not what you seem
If only your name
Gave me strength for your game

And made me feel
Like we're one and the same
Without any veils

But oh
How I know that
The truth is never far behind us

Oh, how it goes
You're an angel underneath it all

You, you're on the defense
And I'm not making sense
Don't know where I stand
Do you know who I am

Or where we've come
'Cause we keep making plans
With nowhere to run

But oh
How it goes
That the truth is never far behind us

Oh, how I know
You're an angel underneath it all

I see the years in your eyes
I see your need to go hide

But oh
How it goes
That the truth is never far behind us

Oh, how I know
That you're an angel underneath it all

But oh
How I know
That the truth is never far behind us

Oh, but I know
You're an angel underneath it all

Oh I know
'Cause the truth is never far behind us

Oh, how I know
You're an angel underneath it all

Oh, how I know
That the truth is never far behind you

Oh, how it goes
You're an angel
