CHORUS:

Lovers of the world, unite
You alone know what is right
People all should feel this way
Needin' someone every day
Keep the fire of dreamers bright
Lovers of the world, unite

All good people, hear my song
If you feel the world is wrong
All division, no one shares
Dreams are dying, & no one cares
Seems that just the young know how
So I ask you, listen now

(chorus)

Such a pity, such a shame
Man has only hate & blame
Give them beauty, give them life
He created toil & strife
Seems that just the young know how
So I ask you, listen now

(repeat chorus & fade)
