(Spoken)

You know, there comes a time in every relationship

When things may not seem right

Just remember, and let'em know

You care

I try to call you on the phone

Just had to hear your voice

But you're not at home

I don't like this silly game

I wish you'd talk to me

I'd like to set the story straight

Chorus:

You don't know how much I care

You don't know just how I feel

Don't you know what you mean to me?

What more do I have to do?

I'd walk through fires of hell for you

Just to let you know I care for you

I care, I care for you

I care for you

You keep talkin' about the past

But that's where it belongs why can't we just let it pass

She doesn't mean a thing to me

And it's not the way the story goes

Why won't you believe?

Chorus

You know that sometimes tells me

That you know the truth

And something's telling me

This is just an excuse

To walk away and have you way

Does it satisfy you?

'Cause I bet you know deep down inside

How much I care for you

Chorus
