I can kill so much time
I can kill so much time
I never thought that I would Let mornings go by Afternoons go by
I'm just too bored without you

There's a hill full of bills,
Final warnings from thrills
They might become a mountain soon
If I can't open my door
I will just burn some more:
I'm way too bored without you

There are mixed words
Coming from my mouth
They are bringing you down
Yeah, they're bringing you down
You want lines drawn firmly,
But that's not what I am about
Not what I am about
Sit and watch my TV, see what they try to sell me
Emptiness is comfort, emptiness is easy

We take a trip
Cause you say distance enlightens
But breakfast and a heartbeat
Are easy to swallow
I just keep everything hollow
I'm way too bored without you

Money buys candy
Even a little is handy
whoever said reality is a good thing to have
I can just cynically laugh
Way too bored without you

There are mixed words
Coming from my mouth
They are bringing you down
Yeah, they're bringing you down

You want lines drawn firmly,
But that's not what I am about
Not what I am about
Sit and watch my TV, see what they try to sell me
Emptiness is comfort, emptiness is easy

Maybe I can buy a chicken farm
Somewhere out in the Midwest
And study Chinese literature
So ferociously that I'll pass

I'll find my wife on a dating site,
But believe we met in class
Bob Dylan is a pussycat
And I'm the king of the Midwest

Yeah, the daddy of the chicken farm
With just a future and no past
All the shit that he went through
It is gone, it is trashed

Then I will vote democrat
And get my white ass to Iraq
Yeah, the daddy of the chicken farm
In his quest to forget

Sit and watch my TV, see what they try to sell me
Emptiness is comfort, emptiness is easy
