[Music: T Gustafsson]

[Lyrics: Rundqvist, Dalegren]

Echoes of cannons, fading away, silence finally conquers

Field in red, consuming life, where death took command

Covered in remains of scattered companions, aftermath of war

Blinded by victory, a battle defeated, where is the honour

Soldiers scream for mercy, when they are trapped
In machinegun massacre

Soldiers path, filled with blood, casualties, of war

Charge against the enemy through a bullet rain Soldiers defleshed in a massive attack

Decapitated bodies, soldiers torn apart Mourning the loss, in a bloodbath

Soldiers path, filled with blood, casualties, of war
