The chaos spreads in less than it takes the snow to fall
In Providence or Portland
They don't care at all
All of a sudden time stands still
The streets are white like crushed up pills
Make a list of things to do
And cross them off cause today is through, yeah
It's hard to sit still when there's so much to be done
The chaos spreads in less time than it takes the snow to fall
In Buffalo or Boston they don't care at all
And the stale stench of winter
Is wreaking havoc through the town
So trade your beach blanket for boredom
Mother natures throwing down
Tranquilize the neighborhood like a postcard shot that's there for good
2 days stranded and I'm losing my mind
Instead of water I'll float online
The barometer drops
And we're inches from the end
The chaos spreads in less than it takes the snow to fall
In Providence or Portland
They don't care at all
And the stale stench of winter
Is wreaking havoc through the town
So trade your beach blanket for boredom
Mother natures throwing down
The stale stench of winter makes a sheep flock to the mall
Spending money like it's Christmas 'cause they have to have it all
