

Voodoo Blue "Enter To Win"

It's time
To pack your bags and sing the songs that will make the whole world tremble
And we're not gonna let you stop 'til you have a platinum on your mantle.
Hold on, are we ready for this?
This business is so hit or miss
You talk the talk now your ass is mine
So sign right here on the dotted line...
Finally,
We're not in my parents basement at home
Here we are,
We're still unknown
It's ok
Just shove us in the van and watch
The journey begins in the suburbs and ends live at red rocks
Based on taking chances and believing in ourselves
We've taken our vows to work hard and play loud
We sold our souls to play the roles
We've been faking all our lives
