I want you back
To catch me when I fall
I took for granted even though
I never knew it

I love when you write to me
I lied
I can't believe when I see it's signed goodbye
Sincerely me

But I'll keep you around
Scapegoat
You drag me down

I'm on the floor again
Because of what you said
To me

I want you back
To catch me when I fall
I took for granted even though I never knew it
I took for granted even though I never knew it

I love when you yell at me
Repeatedly
But I'm scared of the sound
Silence

A friend I found
You slam the door again
Because of what I said
To you

I want you back
To catch me when I fall
I took for granted even though I never knew it
I took for granted even though I never knew it

Like dominoes in love
We all fall down
I won't be around to pick the pieces up from this
And there's no medicine to take for the pain I feel from this

There's no escape at
All fall down

I wanted you back
Sometimes you need to fall
I took for granted even though I never knew it

Don't want you back
I know I need to fall
If this was easy then everybody would do it
