[Verse 1:]

Somehow we find, that repetition in our lives
Will coincide and one day will free us
In spite we fight, the thoughts that I hide, in our lives
But in a different light it will shine between us

[Chorus:]

Farewell tonight
It was good to see your life
So sleep tonight
Consequence the sacrifice
Through red and white as the reasons, that I think Repetition falls
Isn't she lovely in pink

[Verse 2:]

And now we find, that correlations in our lives
Will coincide and one day will free us
Just know, that you'll grow, through all this strife in your life
But in a different light, it will shine between us

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]

Make up your mind
Will I leave to fall behind
'Cus I'm still catching up

Make up your mind
Can I read between the lines
'Cus I'm not giving up

[Chorus]
