

Voodoo Blue "Prom Queen"

She's probably one of them high school girls
Who always has a man
With her mouth full of straight white teeth
That shine against her lips when she grins

Her cold blue eyes stare right through me
Cus she doesn't see anything
But the jock around the corner side, baby
She's convinced that he is the king

What I see in you
Everything that really matters
Wanna be with you
Reinsure that everything's alright

Her gold hair shimmers in the sun
Except for that one week when she dyed it black
I'd bet it feels like silk on my tainted skin
When will that girl cut me some slack?

What I see in you
Everything that really matters
Wanna be with you
Reinsure that everything's alright

Her click is cruel to everyone
And I'm glad I'm not part of that fucked up scene
I know one day she'll find me
My perfect little prom queen

What I see in you
Everything that really matters
Wanna be with you
Reinsure that everything's alright
