Send "Utopia" Ringtone to your Cell
A spawning, discovery
I'm quietly sitting here losing my head
On empty, still thriving by and by
I decided to lose it instead

We've all been programmed from the start
It's time we've, reconciled before we, fall apart

I wished you, good fortune (Don't let them bring you down)
But now I've got to get out of this place
I thanked you, extortion (Don't let them find you out)
You take the appearance right out of my face

A polished, new armor
A shield protecting me only from my own head
Accomplished, new author
Written lies from the start, can you predict the end

We've all been programmed from the start
It's time we've, reconciled before we, fall apart

I wished you, good fortune (Don't let them bring you down)
But now I've got to get out of this place
I thanked you, extortion (Don't let them find you out)
You take the appearance right out of my face

I left you, complacent (Don't let them bring you down)
I'm better off lonely, but still in good health
I loved you, replacement' (Don't let them find you out...)

And I am God on empty plains
Lost lustfully so, close your eyes, you won't feel the same!

I wished you, good fortune (Don't let them bring you down)
But now I've got to get out of this place
I thanked you, extortion (Don't let them find you out)
You take the appearance right out of my face

I left you, complacent (Don't let them bring you down)
I'm better off lonely, but still in good health
I loved you, replacement (Don't let them find you out)
Why talk to you' I could just talk to myself
Well, I could just talk to myself
Yes, I could just talk to my... myself
