"Forever North"

Visit "Forever North" on MotoLyrics.com

Blazing winter fires
Unforgiving frost
Snow blinds the eyes
That seek for light
Hopes are suffocated
Under a pillow of ice
Every breath a razorblade
Carving in the lungs
Born to bare the legacy
Born of stronger blood
Stubborn customs of pride
Heritage of honorable men
Both sword and greed
Have drowned the wisest of men
Hiding the rage inside
Never uttering the miseries
Blazing winter fires
Forever north
