So many people
So many worthless pitiful lives

Pull down your steeple
I'm sick of your hypocritical lies
My soul you sought but I believed it not My soul you need bow down for this demonic creed

Idolizer
For far to long you've spread death
Rise up Arcanum
Smote the hand that's brought us pain

Oh no never again
Deceitful world
Your time has come to

Die, crucify
On your knees brought before me
Cry you deny
Your can't escape mine (you can't escape the revolution)

An end to holy prostitution
Taste my seeds of revelation
How much life will be lost?
In this bleeding holocaust

How much life will be lost in this bleeding holocaust

Die, crucify
On your knees brought before me
Cry you deny
Your can't escape mine (you can't escape the
revolution)

You've scorched he world
Wishing to save
Sending the innocent to their graves
I see through your Cowardly facade
Can't you see that there's no god

Die, crucify
On your knees brought before me
Cry you deny
Your can't escape mine (you can't escape the revolution)

An end to holy prostitution
Taste my seeds of revelation
How much life will be lost?
In this bleeding holocaust

How much life will be lost in this bleeding holocaust

Die, crucify
On your knees brought before me
Cry you deny
revolution)

Oh no never again
Deceitful world
Your chains will be shod
There is no god

We are alone
It's so far away
It's so far away

Oh never again
Deceitful world
Your chains will be shod
There is no god
