The heavens declare Your glory
The skies show what Your hands have made
Without words they're telling a story
And no one can hide from what they say

Day by day, night by night
They tell the world who You are

You are the God of the universe
The stars in the sky are Your fireworks
Jesus, shine Your light in my life
Let Your glory shine
God of the universe

I do not understand it
This is far too great for me
That all this beauty and wonder
Is nothing compared to Your love for me

With all my love, with all my heart
I'll tell the world who You are

You are the God of the universe
The stars in the sky are Your fireworks
Jesus, shine Your light in my life
Let Your glory shine
God of the universe

You are the God of the universe

You are the God of the universe
The stars in the sky are your fireworks

You are the God of the universe
The stars in the sky are Your fireworks
Jesus, shine Your light in my life
Let Your glory shine
God of the universe

You are the God of the universe
You are the God of the universe

You are the God of the universe
The stars in the sky are your fireworks
