I've been searching for a thousand words
For what I already got
I've been running from a love undying
I feel like giving up

And why do I keep on looking
When I know where to find

The king of all the world
Who heals and saves the broken
Run into Your arms
I know they're always open
Rest my soul in Jesus
Let Your holy spirit
Hold my heart
And keep me where You are

I'm done chasing after fame and fortune
It only turns to dust
I'm done holding on to who I was
Oh Lord I'm letting go

And why do I keep on looking
When I know You're mine

King of all the world
You heal and save the broken
Run into Your arms
I know they're always open
Rest my soul in Jesus
Let Your holy spirit
Hold my heart
And keep me where You are

You're so beautiful
You fill my heart
Lord keep me where You are

King of all world
You heal and save the broken
Run into Your arms

I know they're always open
Rest my soul in Jesus
Let Your holy spirit
Hold my heart

King of all world
You heal and save the broken
Run into Your arms
I know they're always open
Rest my soul in Jesus
Let Your holy spirit
Hold my heart
Oh, hold my heart
And keep me where You are
Keep me where You are
