Waterfall

See how the waters fall

They soar into your soul

And you must try to stay inside your Own abode

Just don't become too slow

Don't let it overflow

Just keep your insides safe and warm

Keep it strong

Keep it true

To yourself, don't you lose

Don't give up, don't give up to pressure of sin

Let it go, let it go, let it go, let it go,

let it go, let it go, let it go, let it go

(So leave them all, so leave them all, so leave them all to tell the)

Tales of your life

(And tell me why, and tell me why you'd take the journey to the)

Land of the lies

(I'll never fear, I'll never fear, I'll never fear my life)
