All the love that you possess
Could relinquish bitterness
And the warm hand that I hold
Will protect me from the cold

Your simple take on life
Could change the world's design
Your optimistic plan
Could heal my soul again.

All the joy you have inside
Turns my clouds into blue skies
And the sun is shining bright,
You make my world so right.

[Chorus:]
We came without a care,
But somewhere things went wrong.
We came without a care,
I'm right where I belong with you.
Smile on your face
Could easily replace
The emptiness beneath
Help me to believe:
Vision for the blind,
Broken wings can fly.
I wish you'd never leave,
Love death cannot keep.

All the solace that you give
Helps me keep my will to live.
And I'm glad to stay alive
In this world you've made right.

We came without a care,
But somewhere things went wrong.
We came without a care,
I'm right where I belong with you.
Smile on your face
Could easily replace
The emptiness beneath

Help me to believe
Vision for the blind
Broken wings can fly
Love will never die
So we should never cry.

You stepped into my soul,
You won't leave me alone
You carried me along
Please don't leave me alone.
