Was it ever in your plan
To come from east japan
And get away with me
Now the past has been erased
We're standing face to face
Won't you let me set you free

Did you ever realize
That you're the one I'm dreaming of
My heart's forever paralyzed
I found the cure in your love

I'll never be alone
With your love
I'll never be alone

Every time that we embrace
I can't help but be amazed
You're exactly what I need
I've searched the whole world round
You call without a sound
And now I've found my place

If we were never meant to be
Then why is it so plain to see
I'm happy when you're close to me
We could hit if off so easily
