(Bonus Track)

Gets harder to breathe every breath that I take
The smile that you need is getting harder to fake
So I'm searching to find the right kind of sign
To help me get over all the feelings inside

The innocent mistakes are the hardest to change
So I can't let you turn and walk away

(Chorus)

I wish I could show you
How much it hurts to be alone
After you're gone
How could you leave me?
I'll be waiting here for so long
After you're gone

Now I can see, see through your eyes
And it's breaking me to know that you've lied
So I'm searching to find the right kind of sign
To help me get over all the feelings inside

The innocent mistakes are the hardest to change
So I can't let you turn and walk away

(Chorus)

I wish I could show you
How much it hurts to be alone
After you're gone
How could you leave me?
I'll be waiting here for so long
After you're gone

(Bridge)

I see through your lies...(4x)

(Chorus)

I wish I could show you
How much it hurts to be alone
After you're gone
How could you leave me?

I'll be waiting here for so long
After you're gone
