Visit "Caught In The Sun" on MotoLyrics.com

I pray to God every day
Help me believe all the words I say
And wash all my sins away
But can you see me any other way?

So here I stand...

(Chorus)
Burned, caught in the sun
(I can't throw it all away)
So I run, 'cause I'm not the only one
(Afraid of losing everything)

I wait for you every day
But you don't hear me calling your name
I push everyone away
'Cause they don't see me as one in the same

So here I stand...

(Chorus)
Burned, caught in the sun
(I can't throw it all away)
So I run, 'cause I'm not the only one
(Afraid of losing everything)
