Wake up, it's getting deeper
But I can't blink again
Just seems so tragic in the end
I jump back into the same thing
Couldn't be more obvious
There's no use in trying to pretend

(Chorus)

I would give anything to get you closer
To get you closer to me
I could give everything to get you closer
To bring you closer to me

Back up, I'm getting too close
But I can't think again
Just seems so blurry in the end
I jump back into the same thing
Couldn't be more obvious
There's no use in trying to pretend

(Chorus)

I would give anything to get you closer
To get you closer to me
I could give everything to get you closer
To bring you closer to me

(Bridge)

You put the sunshine in my eyes
(Am I getting through?)
You look away to not go blind
(I'm losing you)

(Chorus)

I would give anything to get you closer
To get you closer to me
I could give everything to get you closer
To bring you closer to me
