All that I am, all that I could be
I don't understand how to live this life I'm living
I've opened my hands to see if I could bleed
So you crucify me just to see if you can hurt me
When I'm broken down and I've kissed the ground
Will you have the strength to carry me?
Carry me home

(Chorus)

Save me and blind me from all that I see
When I close my eyes
Save me and find me a reason to believe
So I can stabilize

I know that I'm not all that I should be
I can't understand why my wounds aren't healing
In the blink of an eye I'm losing my everything
So you crucify me just to see if you can hurt me
When I'm broken down and I've kissed the ground
Will you have the strength to carry me?
Carry me home

(Chorus)

Save me and blind me from all that I see
When I close my eyes
Save me and find me a reason to believe
So I can stabilize

(Bridge)

When I'm broken down and I've kissed the ground
Will you have the strength to carry me?
Carry me home

(Chorus)

Save me and blind me from all that I see
When I close my eyes
Save me and find me a reason to believe
So I can stabilize
