

Vulpine "Where I Belong"

Visit "Where I Belong" on MotoLyrics.com

Today I asked myself not to be afraid to believe
As I sink inside the bottle
Found my reason to feel, lost the only reason to believe
As my life hits the bottom
What you say, what you don't, doesn't change
That I have to find a way to make it through another day

So I'm searching for more...

(Chorus)
Someday I hope to change
The world into a place where I belong
Someday I'll find the strength
To spread my wings and fly away

Today I asked myself, am I blind or can I see?
There's more to life than living
Found my reason to feel, lost the only reason to believe
As my life hits the bottom
What you say, what you don't, doesn't change
That I have to find a way to make it through another

So I'm searching for more...

(Chorus)
Someday I hope to change
The world into a place where I belong
Someday I'll find the strength
To spread my wings and fly away
