"I said we gonna have a good time tonight this evening
I'mma take you, take you there.

"Say what, it's gon'
Say what, it's gon'

"Yo Wale, take them there nigga!"

You heard knowledge is power
Now you got a masters to show you more mastered than all them undergraduates
You know you so pretentious
You love pretending like you love for learning can be applied to this shit
The line for jobs is quite high now isn't it?
His pride diminishes
He's pockets gone dry from the loans they was giving him
The world got cold overnight now didn't it?
Post graduation,
Now just a spokesman for unemployed black doing
Salle Mae debt
Everyday was a saturday
Shit, ain't nothing change just a sadder day,
Digg?

I know the world gets cold
And the days get long
And the sun don't shine and your mind just wonders
Why me?
I said cause we number one!
It's why we get up in the morning

It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright

Get away from it all, he wanted to do
Suicide is easy, he got nothing to prove Stuck in a pool, and it's sucking him in

It's like a black hole, or a fucking abyss
Come in and picture
How he bumping his fist
Ain't that a bloody bitch?
She wasn't a bloody bitch!
She late, her body's gone tardy
Knowing you was getting by hardly
Knowing you can no longer party
Knowing you'll be followed by the bills like

As you depart from you hommies earlier
You got a baby boy or girl in there
Years back you believed that the world was fair
But now it's more than clear
You see the world is scary
And now the present got you struggling
But, use tomorrow as a maligean, Church

I know the world gets cold
And the days get long
And the sun don't shine and your mind just wonders
Why me?
I said cause we number one!
It's why we get up in the morning

It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright

All men cheat baby girl been through it
And niggas ain't shit but you already knew that It's cause of you, see you let them do that
You let them mislead you but money tend to do that,
Right?
Now you see he don't care,
Now You finna to cut your hair
You waiting to exhale
Looking through you phone book
Getting you ex
Rebound slow you down
See,
But you gotta excel
And now life seem hard
Still looking through your call log like "Did he call yet?"
You get your girlfriend something tight to borrow
You going to the club though you soaking in sorrow
Heart broken obviously
There's not tomorrow when the present so powerfull
That the hours seem longer
I know it hurt but,

Life's not perfect
Happiness is hard sometimes you gotta work for it

I know the world gets cold
And the days get long
And the sun don't shine and your mind just wonders
Why me?
I said cause we number one!
It's why we get up in the morning

It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright

"Listen
"I said we gon' have a good time tonigh this evening
"I'm gon'e take you, take you there.

"Said wat? It's gon'
"Said wat? It's gon'

"Yo Wale, take em' there nigga!"

I know the world gets cold and the days get long
And the sun don't shine and your mind just wonders
Why me?
I said cause we number one!
It's why we get up in the morning

It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
It's gon' be alright
