Come back
Come back

Is it getting hard for you
To be the God of broken light
Will you be the martyr?
Can't you see we'll follow you for life?

Are you coming back
To the black where we hide?
Are you coming back
I'll make you larger than life?

Come back to black
Oh, no, don't you do it
Come back to black
Where you gonna go?

Come back to black
No road to ruin
Come back to black
And it's your only road home

Come and walk on water
Let 'em see 'The Chosen One's' alive
Won't you be their father?
Don't you see they all believe your lies?

Are you coming back
To the black where we hide?
Are you coming back
I'll make you larger than life?

Come back to black
Oh, no, don't you do it
Come back to black
Where you gonna go?

Come back to black
No road to ruin
Come back to black
And it's your only road home

Come back to black
Oh, no, don't you lose it
Come back to black
Where you gonna go?

Come back to black
You're forever ruined
Come back to black
Oh, your Neon God's home

Judas and Jesus
We're prophecies here, for all time
And with a kiss and then our
Destinies are sealed for life

Come back
To the edge of Heaven
Come back to black
Our prodigal son

Come back
Come back forever
Come back to black
Oh, the Prophet's home

Come back to black
Oh, no, don't you do it
Come back to black
Where you gonna go?

Come back to black
No road to ruin
Come back to black
And it's your only road home

Come back to black
Oh, no, don't you do it
Come back to black
Where you gonna go?

Come back to black
No road to ruin
Come back to black
And it's your only road home
