The Last Command

Written by Blackie Lawless

You don't know what's in our hearts

This is our time, we've made our mark

And can you understand

We'll fight 'till we fall

But what do you want to do?

The time is right for you

To stand on your feet and answer the call

Stand up, for the first time and shout it, woah-oh

The Last Command is heard across the land

Stand up, for the first time and cry out, woah-oh

Hear the call we are, The Last Command

A thousand times I had this dream

The flag was high, I heard a scream

That cut through the still of the night

Just like a knife

But that was yesterday

The darkness had gone away

I stand on the edge, and I'll pledge my life

Stand up, for the first time and shout it, woah-oh

The Last Command is heard across the land
Stand up for the first time and cry out, woah-oh
Hear the call we are, The Last Command
The destiny that I control will sever
And break the bonds and set me free forever!
Stand up, for the first time and shout it, woah-oh
The Last Command is heard
Stand up for the last time and cry out, woah-oh
Hear the call we are, The Last Command
Stand up for the last time and cry out, woah-oh
Hear the call we are, The Last Command
