Take him out of love he's been there before he knows the feeling it can give Loss of memory

lots of indecision

doesn't know who to believe.
Well
I know the merits of a motion
directed to the man in me

I'll be as good as the next best boy

but you know what I really need:

All I need to get is stimulation

so get me up against the wall

You knew I needed stimulation

but I never thought you'd be that bold.

Lucky guy
his world's on fire

he can get it up night and day
Oh
I wish I could get the feeling and give the girls something to say:
All I need to get is stimulation

so get me up against the wall

...

Well
I know the merits of a motion
directed to the man in me

I'll be as good as the next best boy

but you know what I really need:
All I need to get is stimulation

...

All I need is stimulation

do it and I lose control

You knew I needed stimulation

but I never thought you'd be that bold.
