I love to watch the sunset as it fades behind the trees
Love to talk with god and get down upon my knees
I love the times I spend with my family and friends Love to dream about all the places I've never been

Chorus

And I love to watch you laugh and smile, I love to watch you dream
Love it when you take my hand let me know you believe in me
And I love it that you're my girl, I love that I'm your man Now that you're in my life Baby I know exactly who I am

Well, I know I love the ladies, I love to go out at night I love it how we make up each and every time that we fight Oh I love you oh so very much, love you more than words can sayy
And I don't know how or why but I love you more every day

Chorus

Instrumental break
