Summer nights and summer days
Remind me of you in so many ways
Standing in corners till the darkest hour
Doing everything possible in my power
To convince you there's reasons why
You should stay
Just like four seasons go away
The weather changes, so do I
I'm just not sure you really realise

Waiting for hours but you never came
Dry in summer rain
If I could I would do it all again
Sipping on bourbon tryin' to ease my pain
For hours in summer rain
If I could I would do it all again

Don't care if you're Jewish girl or if you're Christian

I'm just sangin' this song, hoping you're listenin'
Straight from my heart out my throat
I mean every word note for note
I could be wrong, I'm only human
But when I saw you
Broke my heart into a million pieces
And every time we speak the number increases

Waiting for hours but you never came
Dry in summer rain
If I could I would do it all again
Sipping on bourbon tryin' to ease my pain
For hours in summer rain
If I could I would do it all again
