I need a bed That nobody's slept in I need some air Nobody's been breathing I need a thought That I can believe in Is this fog Or is the building really burning I need you Much more than ever I'm making new friends But none of them matter Maybe now We don't fit together But you've got your arms around No one but strangers I feel fine With the sun in my eyes The wind in my hair When I'm falling out of this sky I'm doing better than I thought I would But nothing's ever as good As when you're on top I want to wake up And just start running Into a ditch Or straight up a mountain I want to get Where no one been gettin' Make it deeper than hell Or make it higher than heaven I need someone whose price hasn't been met When everybody's disappearing By the minute There isn't anyone left I haven't meet yet Well I remember When they hadn't gotten to you yet [chorus] Half way up And over this rainbow I heard a shot Fire up from a ghetto As I drop I didn't think you'd follow Just didn't know The sky was this shallow I need a garden Where nothing's forbidden I need an apple That no one's been eatin' I want to start again Back at the beginnin' I had a vision That this feeling maybe has an ending
