We wanted love to last forever,
But somethings missing,
Deep inside,
And now the rain is pouring down on us,
And there's no place,
Left to hide.
I can't find words to break your fall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
When goodbye says it all,
I can't find the strength to break down this wall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
Goodbye.
I can't find words to break your fall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
When goodbye says it all,
I can't find the strength to break down this wall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
Goodbye.
You turn to me to find the answers,
You look at me,
To make it right,
And now the rain is pouring down on us,
And there's no place,
Left to hide,
What's the use of running?
When were on the wrong road.
I can't find words to break your fall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
When goodbye says it all,
I can't find the strength to break down this wall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
Goodbye.
I can't find words to break your fall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
When goodbye says it all,

I can't find the strength to break down this wall,
When goodbye says it all,
Don't have the answers when you call,
Goodbye.
