Tell me eye to eye
What's the reason why
You can't feel the things i do
I've come a long way
Since my search for truth began
I've made the same mistakes
I know I'll make again
A stranger in this land
No one to understand
What i would do, to get through to you
It meant nothing to you,
You'll never understand
It meant nothing to you,
Not the touch of my hand
It meant nothing to you,
You'll never understand
It meant nothing to you,
Not the touch of my hand
Its been a long time
Since I've left it all behind
To travel down these roads
To watch my dreams unwind
A stranger in this land
No one to understand
What I would do, to get through to you
Tell me eye to eye
What's the reason why
You can't feel the things i do
It meant nothing to you,
You'll never understand
It meant nothing to you,
Not the touch of my hand
It meant nothing to you,
You'll never understand
It meant nothing to you,
Not the touch of my hand
Tell me eye to eye
What's the reason why
You can't feel the things i do
