Can you keep a secret
Can you keep it on the low
My summerdays were wasted
With friends, I didn't know
My cards were on the table
But then the tables turned
Willing but unable
Although desire burned

Do you want me
To say what I feel
Do you need me
Should I reveal
My secrets to you
Or keep you in the blue

Would I disappoint you
Would you disagree
I don't want to haunt you
But this is stronger than me
My cards were on the table
But then the tables turned
Willing but unable
Although desire burned

You're the only
If only you saw the truth in me
'Cause I don't know
How I can make you see
