How long has it been since i held you near?
How long will it be till i have you right here?
You say that it hurts, i cant disagree
But how can i hold on to someone who's leaving me?

And mary says she's gonna be ok
She tells me things are getting busy these days
And mary says she's gonna be alright
You know how much i need her in my life

Goodbye yesterday i see my dreams walking away
And Mary looks just like she did before ex-CEpt(dun pronounce the EX just da CEPT) she dont love me, she dont love me anymore

I could shake your hand or I could kiss you goodbye
But i just might break down looking in you brown eyes

So what happens next
Do i listen to my mind or heart
I dont know where to start feeling alright again

And mary says she's ok
she tells me things are getting busy these days
and mary says she's gonna be alright

good bye yesterday i see my dreams walking away
and mary looks just like she did before ex-CEpt (dun pronounce the ex, just the cept) she don't love me
and mary says she's gonna be ok
she tells me things will be much easier some day
and mary says she's gonna be alright
you know how much i'm missing her deep inside and mary says she's gona be ok

she's gonna be alright

she's gonna be alright
