"Easier To Sing"

Angel, you're in my dreams
Glowing in your silvery skin.
But I'm too shy to tell, You.

I need you, like flowers need air,
Like revolutionairs need despair.
But I'm too shy to tell, You.

Chorus:
It's easier to sing
easier to fall like a
warm spring rain

It's easier to sing
easier to fall like a
warm spring rain

Angel, I've got a car
Baby you and me, we can go far
But I'm too shy to tell, You.

I need you, like birds need wings and children bicycles to conquer spring
but I'm too shy to tell, You.
