Shut my mouth let me know how it feels
Hit me hard, refresh my memory
I hate myself and I know you agree
So what's the excuse, we know it's no use, we're wasting our time
Shut my mouth if you think I'm sweet
Believe me it's not intentional
Shoot me dead if you've heard it before You've seen all the signs, I cheat and I lie, you're wasting your time
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
Shut my mouth, I was born to annoy
You're still to see the worst side of me
You think I'm smart but I'm just being coy
Whatever you say, I'll be in your way, wasting your time
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
Shut my mouth if you're not still around
I'm confused, you should have had enough
Well bite my fist do you know what it means It's you and me, and we're meant to be, wasting our time
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
You win, stupid, I will be your idiot boy
