I want to go where the silent people go
Because I've been told
Silence is gold
Being without being heard, without a word
And I would nod
There's a god
And you - how about you
A whole new flavour
If you hear it, taste it
Soon is not too soon
You can be a humble dreamboy too
I want to go where the silent people dream
About simple things
Everyone's a king
Being without being hurt - oh how absurd
If there's a god
He's in that world
And you - how about you
A whole new flavour
If you hear it, taste it
Soon is not too soon
You can be a humble dreamboy too
And if you hear it maybe
You can go there too
You can be a humble dreamboy too
