They put a rifle in my hand
It's hard for a 16 year old to understand
Their masterplan
Why I'm supposed to die
Or kill a man
Instead of them

Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened
Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened

They put a rifle in my hand and drooled
We'll surely make a man out of you
I was the master fool
'cause I lost the right and wrong of
Killing men
Instead I roared with them
I love to die
Or kill a man

Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened
Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened

I didn't get a chance to choose
A second chance to lose

Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened
Things that I would love to have undone
That I wish never happened
