riding into the morning dew; at dawn eyes on the track wind's at our back home again when the evening's blue; withdrawn still having fun you're number one running free in a field of dreams galloping clouds like I've never seen

we touch the sky when we jump this high
we can do anything
we are the saddle club
we feel the air run through our hair
we are the saddle club

having adventures with three best friends; as one there's nothing more we're looking for all we need is our horses, dreams, and the sun we're growing up in saddle club

we can do anything
we are the saddle club
we feel the air run through our hair
we are the saddle club

we are the saddle club
we can do anything
we are the saddle club
we feel the air run through our hair

we are the saddle club
fade
we touch the sky when we jump this high
we can do anything
we are the saddle club
we feel the air run through our hair
we are the saddle club
