I'm in the bar when I should be in front of you
I play the pinball when I really should be skanking
It doesn't matter how many times you ask me up
I appreciate it but it's complicated
I just can't dance baby
I just can't lose myself
I've got an image and I have to live up
On to the latest trends so nowadays I am macho
Have you ever seen a macho shake or twist his butt
I know you're not so I'm not licking it to the spot
Cause I can't dance baby
No I just can't get in trance
But someone told me bad boys
Don't know why there not dancing
And someone told me what they say
Is there only way to slip away
Aah bad boys
They don't know how to dance away
Aah
They rather slip away
Aah bad boys
The don't know how to dance away
Aah
(Repeat)
